PROGRAM

Speaker: Andy Danver, Member, SIR Branch 35

Topic: My 11 cold days with the Russian space program

On July 8, 2011, the last U.S. space shuttle flight was launched to the International Space Station. Since then the only way to ferry astronauts to and from the space station is using the Russian Soyuz rocket and space module.

Last December Andy accepted a NASA invitation to come to Moscow. He then flew 1600 miles to Baikonur to attend the December 19, 2012, launch at the Russian Cosmodrome in minus 44 degree Fahrenheit weather. He returned to Moscow to tour the Russian space agency training facility at Star City and watch the Soyuz spacecraft link-up with the ISS in the Russian Mission Control facility outside of Moscow. This talk will highlight some of what Andy saw and learned on this 11-day odyssey.

After graduating from Stanford's Graduate School of Business, Andy joined HP's budding computer operation. He has extensive sales and marketing experience in the computer industry including Director of Federal Computer Market Manager with both HP and other Silicon Valley start-ups. He retired from HP in 2000 and turned his attention to volunteer work with the Mountain View-Los Altos High School Foundation and Los Altos High School. In 2008 he was selected by the MVLA PTSA as the volunteer parent of the year.

The Big Sir Says . . .

As I had to announce at the April meeting, we will NOT be moving to the Elks Lodge. My blood pressure will not allow a long explanation, so suffice it to say that when presented with a written agreement the Lodge reneged on a verbal handshake. The good news is that our arrangements with both the I.F.E.S. hall and our caterer remain in place.

A reminder to those who have not made their annual $25.00 contribution – please take care of it.

Through the effort of Director Ron Nakamoto, we have come up with something that embodies our pride in SIR and our Branch – apparel displaying the branch logo. There will be hats, polo shirts and jackets available in a variety of colors. You can choose your color and size of "SIR Branch 35" apparel from the Apparel Brochure which you will be receiving via e-mail and at the May lunch where there will be samples of each item. The low initial prices will be good through the time the first order is placed in June. Prepaid orders will be taken from May until June 19th after which the initial order will be placed. The apparel will be available by July 17th. Subsequent orders will be placed as demand indicates.

Be proud of your Branch and show it!

Joe

ANNUAL PICNIC – JULY 17TH

Our annual summer picnic will be at Saratoga Springs Picnic Grounds just west of Saratoga (take a look at www.saratoga-springs.com). We are going to have a great BBQ cooked on site for us including chicken, tri-tip steak, and hot dogs. There is an extensive salad buffet and ALL YOU CAN DRINK beer, wine and soft drinks. There is plenty of parking but we encourage carpooling and designated drivers.

The location is in the Redwoods with a stream flowing through the park. It is a great venue full of activities for all ages including Horseshoes and Bocci Ball. We will have a couple of competitions including the famous "Duck Race" down the stream, a putting contest and competitions in both Horseshoes and Bocci Ball. There will be prizes for competitions among 4-person teams, so think about whom you want to have on your team.

Get your tickets at the May meeting at the Travel Table or from Co-Little Sir Ben Gikis. Tickets are only $25 per person. There will be a raffle for prizes for all those who have purchased their tickets by the end of the May meeting.
